

Art Galleries & Artists of the South

Volume 6, Issue 1

$5.95

ELLA WALTON RICHARDSON FINE ART

CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA

Ella Walton Richardson Fine Art is located in historic downtown Charleston's French Quarter. The gallery was founded by Ella Walton Richardson, a talented fine art photographer and one who has a devotion to the visual arts.

A newly renovated gallery space is home to beautiful works of art from American and European artists. This elegant setting at 58 Broad Street will host many special exhibits this spring and summer with a show in April: Lynn Gertenbach's sumptuous oil paintings ranging from landscapes to figures. Craig Nelson will be featured in May and in July, Hilarie Lambert and plein-air painter, Karen Hewitt Hagan. See www.ellarichardson.com or page 126 for contact information.

Jeff Jamison, Le Chocolatier, 12" x 12", oil on canvas

Rick Reinert, December Light, the Lowcountry, 18" x 24", oil on canvas panel

Evgeny and Lydia Baranov, Good Evening, 12" x 16", oil on canvas

Karen Hewitt Hagan, Venetian Gondolas, 11" x 14", oil on canvas panel

Lynn Gertenbach, Fragrant Evening, 12" x 9", oil on canvas

Dan Schultz, Crossing the Meadow, 16" x 12", oil on canvas

Hilarie Lambert, Reflections in Color, 36" x 24", oil on canvas

Scott Moore, Meeting and Broad, 24" x 30", oil on panel